

I definately think that cross ownership of a news paper and a TV station in the same town is bad for the public interest. In my opinion it is anti-competetive and anti-free speech.

jk